

In the City Council
City of Lodi
Lodi, California

RESOLUTION NO.1674

FINDING THAT COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS
OF THE SPECIAL ASSESSMENT INVESTIGATION,
LIMITATION AND MAJORITY PROTEST ACT OF 1931
IS NOT REQUIRED IN THE PROPOSED OPENING OF
CHESTNUT STREET AND SOUTH CRESCENT AVENUE

WHEREAS, the City Clerk of the City of Lodi has reported to this City Council that, in compliance with Resolution No. 1667 of the City Council of the City of Lodi and with the provisions of Part 7 of Division 4 of the Streets and Highways Code of the State of California, notices and reply postal cards have been properly mailed to each property owner in the district proposed to be assessed for the costs and expenses of opening of these streets, and

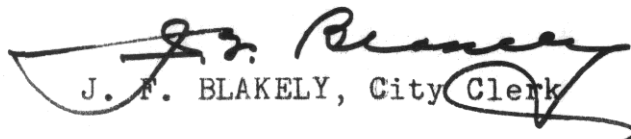

WHEREAS, from said report and from the postal cards returned, it is evident that less than 15% of these property owners demand that proceedings be had pursuant to the provisions of the Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931, therefore

RESOLVED, that this City Council in regular meeting on this 7th day of May, 1952, does hereby find, determine and declare that demand for the investigation, report, etc. required by the Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931 was made by owners of less than 15% of the area proposed to be assessed to pay the cost of the improvement above mentioned; further,

RESOLVED, that this City Council is now at liberty to proceed in the opening of these streets under the provisions of the Street Opening Act of 1889 as previously stated in its Resolution No. 1667 of March 19, 1952.
